1. The content of this website, or any content of any site to which you are redirected while using this site, is provided by Di Palma Attorneys Inc. for general informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice.
2. Every effort is made to ensure that the content is accurate and up to date, but no representations or warranties are made as to the completeness, reliability, or accuracy of the information.
3. There is no substitute for getting specific, tailored legal advice regarding your specific circumstances. Generic advice is inappropriate.

No Attorney–Client Relationship

4. Accessing or reading this website, or contacting us via forms or interactive features, does not create an attorney–client relationship. We only accept instructions upon written confirmation and acceptance of a specific mandate, and after appropriate due diligence and conflict checks have been conducted.

Use at Your Own Risk

5. Any use of the information on this site is entirely at your own risk. You accept that Di Palma Attorneys Inc. shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or liability of any kind arising from reliance on information contained on this website or via any link, redirection, or third-party platform.

External Links and Platforms

6. Some links or buttons on this website may redirect you to third-party services (such as WhatsApp, Calendly, or secure email platforms). While we strive to ensure the integrity and security of these platforms, we cannot guarantee their availability or safety and urge users to remain vigilant.

No Guarantees or Warranties

7. All content, including legal updates, commentary, and resources, is provided “as is” without warranties of any kind. Nothing on this website should be considered a substitute for tailored legal advice provided by a qualified professional.

Professional Status

8. Di Palma Attorneys Inc. is a law firm registered and practising in the Republic of South Africa. The firm is an Accountable Institution in terms of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 38 of 2001 (FICA).
